Saturday, September 17, 2016
American Family World Headquarters
6000 American Parkway, Madison, WI

summit:

1. the highest point of a journey or hill;
2. the highest point of attainment;
3. meeting between people who care deeply about the same subject

Join other siblings from throughout Wisconsin for the first-ever Sibling Summit hosted by WisconSibs. Held at the beautiful American Family Headquarters near Madison, the day will connect, inform and inspire adults who have sisters or brothers with disabilities. This one-day conference features speakers and activities critical to siblings and the family members and professionals who care about them.

The goal of the Sibling Summit is to help you experience one of the highest points in your sibling journey.

Don't miss this opportunity to meet other siblings who deeply care about their siblings with disabilities.
