Guardian Assistance Program

Outagamie County

What is the Guardian Assistance Program?

The Outagamie County Guardian Assistance Program provides free training, education, and support to guardians in Outagamie County. Attend a training, call with questions, or meet with staff when needed to help you fulfill your role as a guardian of person, estate, or both.

Assistance and Support

In addition to group trainings, the Guardian Assistance Program also provides education and support to guardians on a one-to-one basis through phone, email, or office appointments. Please use the contact information provided in this informational flyer to utilize this option.

Some guardian questions and/or situations require the assistance of legal representation. No legal advice is given through the Outagamie County Guardian Assistance Program.
