

Sibling Saturday at the Building for Kids

This special day welcomes children ages infants – 12 years with disabilities, their siblings, and parents/guardians to play at the Building for Kids Children's Museum. The event is presented by WisconSibs* and is FREE. Families have access to all museum exhibits and can explore the museum freely during this play session. Come enjoy the museum and participate in these special features:

- Sibshop for children ages 6-12 who have a sibling with disabilities (1:30 – 2:30 pm)
- Parent information and First 5 and other early childhood resources
- Sibsack for siblings ages 3-5 (available between 1:00 pm – 3:00 pm)
- Meet the author of 'I Love You Marylou', Ruth Schmeckpepper
- Children's story readings
- Meet 'Misty' the puppet and her friend Lori
- Santa!!

December 18, 2021 1:00—3:30 pm

Building for Kids

100 W College Ave., Downtown Appleton

This event is free to families of children with disabilities, but registration is required. Registration is limited to 100 people. All visitors to the Building for Kids must sanitize hands upon arrival. Masks are required for all visitors 3 and older. No food or drink is allowed in the museum at this time.

Register online at <https://bit.ly/SiblingSaturday>

*WisconSibs is a nonprofit organization dedicated to the interests of siblings of individuals with disabilities. For more information, visit www.wisconsibs.org